KINESIOLOGY is a new science and provides a non-intrusive method of assessing the function of the various systems in the body. Using the way a muscle responds to read the function of the lymphatic system, the vascular system, the digestive system, and other physiological functions, assessment can be made of the balance within the body. These tests reveal information about many of the intricacies of physiology which were previously unknown and unrecognised.

ANNIE'S TALK AND DEMONSTRATION WILL BE ON DEHYDRATION, MOBILE PHONES AND THE HAZARDS INVOLVED.
